

Konan University Online Homestay Program

with Japanese Host Families

Would you like to know what daily life is like in Japan? This is an online Japanese language program where you can communicate with host families and learn about their lifestyles. During the program, you will have the opportunity to meet your host family online. It is a one-month program and it will be held in March, April and May. You may choose a month to attend the program or attend all 3 months. This is a great chance to use what you have learned in Japanese classes and deepen your knowledge about real life in Japan!
